

Walker Institute of International and Area Studies presents
THE PALMETTO FORUM

GEOPOLITICAL DISRUPTION
AND THE U.S. ELECTIONS

Join us for a post-election discussion of the global challenges and opportunities that will face the new president and Congress. What will be the new international priorities for the United States? How will the world respond to changes in America's leadership? Our expert panel will give their analyses of what lies ahead.

TUESDAY

November 19

12:00 p.m. – 1:00 p.m.

The Palmetto Club

1231 Sumter St. Columbia, SC 29201

Register Here

Dr. Christina Ahmadjian
Sonoco Visiting Fellow
Darla Moore School of Business

Christina Ahmadjian, Ph.D., is a Sonoco Visiting Fellow at USC's Darla Moore School of Business. She is the former Dean of Hitotsubashi University Graduate School of International Corporate Strategy and is a board member of several major Japanese corporations.

Dr. Carl Dahlman
Director
Walker Institute of International and Area Studies

Carl T. Dahlman, Ph.D., is Professor of Geography and Director of the Walker Institute. He is widely published on the geopolitics of war, peace, and migration, primarily in Europe and the Middle East.

Dr. Gerry McDermott
Chair, Sonoco Department of
International Business
Darla Moore School of Business

Gerald A. McDermott, Ph.D., is Professor and Chair of International Business at the Darla Moore School of Business at the University of South Carolina. His expertise includes a focus on the local impacts of international integration regimes such as the EU, NAFTA, and Mercosur.