

GAL and CASA Training: Recognizing Signs of Secondary Trauma and Exploring Treatment Options

Who should attend: Staff, volunteer guardians, and attorneys with the Cass Elias McCarter Guardian ad Litem Program and Richland County CASA

Overview: This training, offered exclusively for current guardians and attorneys with the Cass Elias McCarter Guardian ad Litem Program and Richland County CASA, will explore signs of secondary trauma and treatment options. Time will be allowed for questions and discussion to ensure those who complete the training will have enhanced knowledge to better advocate for the children they serve in their respective cases.

This training will be offered on a virtual platform. The links will be sent to each registrant near the date of the training.

Date: May 16, 2025

Time: 9:00 am to 12:00 pm

We recommend you log in by 8:45 am to ensure attendance is recorded and deal with any technical difficulties you might experience.

Fee: There is no charge for this training.

Continuing Education Credits: This training is approved for 3 hours of continuing education units (CEUs) for social work credit hours.
